

YOUNG ADULT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct applies during the entire conference, in transit and on location, wherever you may be. Keeping in mind the responsibilities for the coordinators of this conference and KSKJ to provide a safe, respectful and positive environment for all participants, we ask you to consider and accept our Code of Conduct described below. By your signature you are agreeing to abide by the following expectations:

1. I will be present in mind and body at all scheduled sessions and places throughout the duration of the conference. (Get appropriate amounts of sleep)
2. I will be present on time when events are scheduled.
3. I will respect my roommates and their sleeping preferences.
4. I will follow the direction of the KSKJ Leadership Conference Team. I understand that any poor behavior or lack of cooperation may result in my being sent home.
5. I will dress appropriately, keeping in mind that I am representing myself as a leader at a conference. (Dress is casual – certainly not suits or khakis, but also not hanging out at the beach. You may want to bring a sweater or jacket and some long pants in preparation of cooler weather and/or classrooms).
6. I will use positive and encouraging speech and refrain from foul or abusive language.
7. I agree not to possess and/or consume alcohol or drugs during this conference.
8. I agree not to be in the sleeping area of a member of the opposite sex and recognize that there are other appropriate public areas for us to hang out.
9. I agree to respect myself, the coordinators of this conference, my lodge and KSKJ by acting appropriately and safely at all times.

Participant: I understand and agree to the Code of Conduct. I also understand and acknowledge that any breach of conduct may result in dismissal from the conference, and that I may be sent home at my own or my parent(s)/guardian's expense.
