
Ashley Mikulan

Interior Designer, McCormick Architects & Designers

Ashley Mikulan served on the KSKJ Life Fraternal Board as Region 1 Director from 2014-2018 and is currently a member and officer of KSKJ Life Lodge #50. She has been an Interior Designer with McCormick Architects & Designers since 2012. Prior to this, she was employed with New Angle Design (Interior Design Services), first as an Interior Design Intern then as an Interior Designer. She is a member of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) (Pennsylvania West Chapter), having held various positions within the organization including Professional Development Committee Chair, Professional Development Director to the PA West Board and Member of the PA West Work Plan Committee.

She is also a member of the Chatham University Interior Architecture Advisory Board. Mikulan has volunteered with the Best of the Batch Foundation and The Education Partnership. She received a Bachelor of Interior Architecture degree from Chatham University and completed coursework in Interior Design at La Roche University. Mikulan resides in Gibsonia, PA.